Incident: Home Invasion/Robbery

Date: 041209

Time: 0430

Location: Gables Apartments, 2102 Charleston Place, Dunwoody, GA.

On 041209 at approximately 0430 hours, the Dunwoody Police Department was dispatched to a home invasion at the Gables Apartments, 2102 Charleston Place. Two victims were arriving home at approximately 0100 hours. As they were entering their apartment, three armed Hispanic males descended from the breezeway above and forced them inside. Prior to entering the apartment, one of the armed suspects shot through the door. Once inside, the suspects located a third victim and began demanding money. All three victims, between the ages of 18 and 22, were bound and had their faces covered.

Two more suspects entered the apartment at a later time. A second shot was fired through the bedroom ceiling during the home invasion. There was no description of the suspects, however, a Honduran accent was overheard.

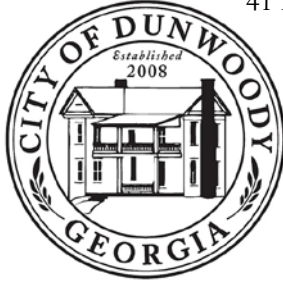

The suspects stole a tan 2003 GMC Yukon from one of the victims. There was no tag on the vehicle.

Once the suspects left the apartment, the victims freed themselves and called the police. One victim was transported to Grady Hospital with a laceration to his finger.

This incident was turned over to the investigative division.
